Deaton Quits As South Bay Mayor-Commissioner

South Bay Mayor-Commissioner John Deaton resigned both his municipal positions Tuesday night following a heated argument during the commission meeting.

The argument, between Deaton on the one hand, and Commissioners Woodrow "Woody" O'Neal and Neal Mayo on the other, concerned the hiring of a fifth person to work in the city hall.

Deaton said Wednesday morning his resignation was dated Jan. 15, although he didn't mention it during the commission meeting, and he would have a letter of resignation in the city hall by noon Wednesday.

"You can't run anything the way they want to do it," Deaton said. "If one commissioner can't run his department, the whole commission damn sure can't do it."

The argument, and the ensuing resignation, erupted when Mayo told the other commissioners during their meeting they should hire Mrs. Faye Tillman, a former city hall employee who worked for the city some six years ago.

Mrs. Tillman is currently employed at the Florida Farm Bureau Insurance office on Hooker Highway. She said she had originally been approached by Mayo last month and he asked her to go to work.

"He said they needed me to replace another lady in the office (Mrs. Betty White) who had been hurt," Mrs. Tillman said Wednesday.

She said Mayo told her the city needed her and she agreed to apply if that were the case, "but since then, I heard they had hired someone else and I just let it drop."

But if Mrs. Tillman was ready to drop the matter Mayo and O'Neal were in no mood to do so Tuesday night and the commission voted 4-1 over Deaton's may vote to hire her.

A large part of the argument was whether each commissioner had the right to hire employees for his department without consulting the other commissioners. Deaton took the position each commissioner-department head had the right to do so.

"Well," O'Neal said, "we used to bring any employee before the entire commission before hiring him. I thought the whole commission had to approve any application for employment."

"We're supposed to work as a whole commission," he told Deaton. "You aren't the whole city. We're supposed to work together."

Deaton pointed out there are two employees hired at the city water plant by former Commissioner Howell Goodbread which he didn't know anything about until they were hired. He also said there had been a number of police officers hired without anything being said to the commission and told O'Neal, "If you want to hire anybody in your fire department, it's all right with me."

The commission approved a motion by Commissioner Esther Berry that in the future no employees were to be hired unless they were screened by the entire commission.

If you're going to turn a department over to a commissioner," Deaton argued, "he ought to be allowed to run it. I'm in charge of the administrative department and I thought I had the right to hire someone when I have to. Mayo said there was a city ordinance requiring all potential employees to be screened by the commission before employment."

City Clerk Virginia Walker told him she while this was the practice at one time, only persons in the office the commission is required to pass on are the city clerk and a city administrator.

For Mayor-Commissioner Verita Cox, who is also the Police Commissioner, said Wednesday morning police officers as one time were screened by the commission but that had not been the practice for some time.

"Sometimes," she said, "the chief will ask me a question about someone but he has been doing the hiring lately."

Mrs. Cox said she was unaware of Deaton's resignation. This is really a shocking piece of news," she said and added she would probably call a special meeting sometime this week to discuss the issue.

Deaton said the flare-up Tuesday night, while it precipitated his resignation, wasn't the entire reason.

"It's been coming for some time now," he said. The handwriting has been on the wall. There has been a lot of hand-wringing here with employees of meddling around here with employees before this."

He pointed out that, should Mrs. Tillman accept the position made available by the commission, there will be five employees in city hall including Mrs. Walker.

Ordinarily there are Mrs. Walker and two other employees and Deaton was including Mrs. White who asked for and received a leave of absence until April 3. The leave of absence was granted by the commission before Mrs. Tillman was mentioned.

Mrs. Tillman said Wednesday morning she still hadn't decided what she was going to do.

City Attorney Allen Overard said a special election would have to be held. The city charter requires a special election any time a vacancy is created more than 90 days before the general election.

Very Moving Experience

Big!!! It looked like a house moving down the road! Actually, that's exactly what it was. Going through with its expansion program, Southern Bell Telephone Co. had bought the house and property on the corner of Southwest Avenue D and Southwest First Street and moved the house to Southwest First Street for Mrs. Mary Landon. Moving down Belle Glade's Main Street the house took a large enough to need a police escort to route traffic, and a man on top to move utility wires. Wonder if that's a telephone wire he's moving there.

Other State Rd. 80 Funds Sought

Local leaders in the fight to four-lane SR80 said Tuesday they thought others sources of funds the county can use to buy right of way may be found since $2.1 million formerly promised has been withdrawn. The money was to have been loaned to the county on the promise the county would pay it back from future secondary gasoline tax funds.

Officials of the state Department of Transportation met Monday, however, they had been advised by Attorney General Robert Shreve that form of loan is unconstitutional. The $2.1 million was to have been used to purchase right of way along SR80 between Bay and US90 at 20 Mile Bend.

"What else could you expect," Palm Beach County Commissioner E.W. "Bud" Weaver demanded Tuesday, "from a Department of Transportation headed by a man with a public relations back ground?"

"When they took the politics out of road building," he said, "that's when they stopped building roads."

Weaver said Palm Beach County Commission Chairman Robert C. Opper and County Engineer Herbert Kahert were scheduled to appear before DOT officials in Tallahassee Tuesday to get some information about SR80 and they asked about the funds at the same time.

"Bob (Cupper) called back today (Tuesday), Weaver said, "and he confirmed the funds had been denied. I'm not too surprised, though. I've been lied to by the DOT before."

Weaver said Sam Draper, a DOT official, is scheduled to appear before the county commission Jan. 22 to explore other possible ways of funding right of way purchase. Franklyn Jones, chairman of the Canal Hazards Safety Commission, said he has been informed by DOT officials there are either possible sources, "which could generate more than the $2.1 million we would have gotten this way."

Jones said he has been in touch with State Rep. Tom Lewis and State Sen. Philip Lewis, both of which have been active in the SR80 project. Both of the legislators said they would take into the other possibilities of funding themselves.

Jones said approximately 80 to 70 per cent of the right of way along the relocated portion of SR80 between Hooker Highway and 20 Mile Bend has already been pledged by the landowners.

This would be subtracted from the total amount of purchasing funds required and Jones said he is hopeful the commission can get as much as 90 per cent of the relocated stretch pledged.

"We've only been turned down by one man who owns a half mile stretch along one side of the right of way," Jones said. He said the pledges don't cover the expanded right of way needed to four-lane SR80 between South Bay and Hooker Highway, however.

Jones said he had been told by Sen. Lewis the senator was upset because the same form of funding denied to Palm Beach County is already being used to both purchase right of way and construct US41 on the west coast.

Weaver said the denied funds would effectively stop the four-lane project or $20 million unless other funds could be found, because the "county doesn't have enough money to do the job itself."

The setback may not delay the project substantially, however, according to Jones, if other funds could be found within about six months.

Hospital Boundary Bill Is Submitted By Board

Resolutions calling for legislation changing the boundaries of the Southwestern and Northwestern Palm Beach County Hospital Districts and enabling the districts to provide ambulance service were presented to the legislative committee Wednesday.

State Rep. Raymond J. Boudry, chairman of the delegation, confirmed Wednesday morning he had received the two resolutions and said the next step would be to bring them up at the delegation's Mar. 5 meeting.

The resolutions were drawn up by Southwestern district attorney Robert Mathews and presented to the hospital board of trustees Tuesday night and will be brought before the delegation when it next meets at 9:30 a.m. Mar. 5 in the City Council Chambers at Dade County.

The hospital board is asking the legislature to pass enabling legislation which would permit the hospital to purchase the Terry Moss Ambulance Service in an effort to keep Moss in business and continuing service to the district.

It is also asking for a shift in the boundary lines for the present configuration, which follows Airport Road almost to Mile Bend where it runs southeast along Browns Farm Road to the coastline.

The proposed boundary is just north of a line running east to west along Hooker Highway and the proposed relocated State Road 80 to 20 Mile Bend. The new line would bring a number of businesses and industries into the Southwestern district.

Meanwhile, a grant was received and approved by the county commission which would provide a new ambulance for the county which would be used for emergency medical services within the county. The county asked for a total of $20,000 from the state Department of Health and Rehabilitation Services to be used for emergency medical services within the county. The grant was granted a total of $15,000.

William Hawkins of the county's Highway Safety Department, said the grant would be used for emergency medical services within the county. The grant was granted a total of $15,000.

To make use of the grant the county must put up a like amount as matching funds. The EMSA originally intended to use $17,000 for the communications system and $15,000 for the ambulance.

Because of the cutbacks, however, the county may allocate only $12,000 toward the ambulance.

"We haven't had a meeting of the EMSA yet," Hawkins said, "but I think we will have to put a priority on the central hospitalization system, which would benefit the entire county. We should still be able to purchase an ambulance though."

Dr. Arthur Trask, who chairs the EMSA, said the council will meet again tonight and a decision will probably be made.

"We definitely know an ambulance will be purchased," Trask said, "but where it will go has not been decided for sure."

County Commissioner E.W. "Bud" Weaver of Lake Harbor said Tuesday the commission has approved the grant but he told the other commissioners

'Temporary' Trailer Permits Stir Row

Mobile home parks were the subject of a heated debate Monday in the Belle Glade City Commission, with Commissioner William Greer saying there are too many already scattered around the Southwest section of town.

Greer said one of the things the city should be doing is attempting to open a trailer park in order to provide space for the many new individuals who come to the city.

The debate flared up during the meeting of the commission when a temporary trailer permit. Greer said he has attended several meetings recently during which a number of Southwest section residents told him they are unhappy with the number of permits being issued.

"That's easy for us as homeowners to say," Commissioner John Grady said, "but when a woman comes before us and she has a lot and she and three or four kids are living in a rooming house, then I think it's her right to move a trailer in."

"That's not the point," Greer told him. "A person buys a nice house and when someone moves a trailer near when their home values drop."

City's NDP Funds

$70,000

Untouchable?

There is approximately $70,000 reserved for Belle Glade residents to call on for low interest, long term loans to help them get started in business or to expand an existing one.

The money had been reserved for the city's Neighborhood Development Project but the city didn't learn of its existence until this week.

NDP Director Tom Altman said Tuesday the city commission Monday night he had learned from HUD the "rehabilitation loan" money was available as of Jan. 4.

Altman said Tuesday, however, the time required to find people who qualify for the home rehabilitation loans, and the paperwork needed to satisfy HUD, is so great, he doubts the red tape can be cut through in the time remaining for the NDP project.

"This is typical of what's been happening in the project area," he said. "They told us on Jan. 4 we would get the loans when we have a July 1 deadline, actual is four months after the project was supposed to have ended."

The NDP grant, because of delays and governmental red tape, didn't get started until Dec. 5, 1972, when it was supposed to have begun July 1, 1972.

Although the city received an extension from HUD at the time, it was only extended until Oct. 31, 1973. When that date had come and gone, the city received word from HUD in Jacksonville another extension had come through until June 30 of this year.

During that time, Altman said he had been trying to find homeowners in the project area who qualified for rehabilitation grants, outright gifts of money to be used to repair their homes.

The problem was that the restrictions were so tight Altman could find no one who qualified after screening approximately 100 homes.

To qualify for the grant, the recipient would have to be an owner-occupant, that is a homeowner living in the building to be repaired. The rule would rule out apartments and other residences being rented.

The income of the owner-occupant would have to be less than $3,000 per year, spending at least 25 per cent of his income on housing. The home must be in need of repairs but the money must be capable of being brought up to building code standards by a total expenditure of $3,500, the maximum grant available.

The primary difference between the grants and the loans, besides the fact the owner would pay back the loan with a low rate of interest over a long period, is the amount of money which would be available.

Altman said that under the rehabilitation loans, the owner-occupant could borrow up to half the value of the home.

"Now," he said, "we have to go and find someone who will qualify for the loan. Then we have to find someone with the expertise in both hospital districts and said he was 'very impressed' with what he most other commissioners

"I was tickled over what I saw and with what has happened over the past year," Trask said.

A Man's Home...

With money costing as much as it does today...
With land costing as much as it does today...
With the cost of construction soaring...
With the cost of materials to add to an existing structure soaring...
It is getting more and more difficult for the average American to achieve the American dream. That is the dream of owning your own home. It's becoming more and more difficult as each day passes.
To what, then, is the average American turning? Quite simply, he is moving more and more toward mobile homes.
Why? Well, a mobile home solves many of the problems the average American faces. Its doesn't cost nearly as much as a home, it takes less land to put it on and it is easier to get financed.
Besides, they are making some beautiful mobile homes these days. Sitting in some of these wider models today it is difficult to tell you are not sitting in a real home. Today's mobile homes not only look attractive from the inside, but they also look nice and neat from the outside.
We saw a cartoon recently with a picture of a run down shack sitting next to a brand new, shiny mobile home. The caption underneath was a quote coming out of the window of the shack. It read, "Oh no, don't tell me they moved a TRAILER in next door!"
What it was trying to get across, of course, is that mobile homes today aren't the "TRAILERS" of yesterday.

To see a very nice mobile home community all one has to do is go down to Arrowhead Estates off Airport Rd. It is an attractive community.
Once fully developed, there is room for about 300 more trailers in Arrowhead. What is there now is already filled—which brings us to the main point of the editorial.
Almost anywhere you want to park a trailer in Palm Beach County is almost filled up—especially west of 20-Mile-Bend. And except for planned communities such as Arrowhead Estates, mobile homes are located pretty haphazardly around Belle Glade.
Other areas of the United States, recognizing this fast growing trend, all zoning huge areas for mobile home parks. Meanwhile, in the Glades, local commissions are letting themselves be swayed by pressure groups who raise the spectre of "TRAILERS". Both in Pahokee and in Belle Glade plans for nice, progressive mobile home parks have been turned down.
This is regressive, rather than progressive. Let's get the trailers out of the down town areas. Let's get the single mobile homes here and the single mobile homes there out from amongst the business and houses.
Let's designate 100 acres here or 100 acres there to mobile homes parks. Let's make it what a developer's while to come in here and put in his own central sewer plant. Let's give him the area to bring in 800 or even 1,200 trailers.
Let's provide nice places for people in Belle Glade to live. Let's put the past horrors of "TRAILERS" behind us and start planning for the future. If we don't, the future may pass us by.

She Wants To Know Where The Children Are

Dear Sir:

For many months, watching the 11 p.m. news, we listen what has become a cliché phrase, "Parents, do you know where your children are?"
Well it seems that parents go to bed too calm knowing where their children are.
Lately, in our neighborhood, we have been having trouble. It seems that parents have forgotten to teach to respect private properties, and more to respect the homes of honest citizens of this town.
The Southeast section, especially around third and fourth streets and avenues 11 and 12, are being abridged by oranges taken from neighboring trees. Some people are unable to drive without having a big German Shepherd coming in the way of cars, and mini-buses raising lawns.
Where are parents at midnight? Is their social lives more important than their children's future?
Are not parents responsible for the acts of their children? Is it happening to the good "old American tradition of respect?"
The police department need names of those who are involved in that kind of behavior. Well, do we need to hire private investigators to find out where their children are? Do we have to protect our homes with hidden television cameras to catch and formulate complaints? THAT IS JUST RIDICULOUS.

We believe that the Police Force indeed have many eyes everywhere at the same time, but there have been already many complaints about the situation, and nothing apparently has been done to prevent this kind of behavior. It is about time that parents and authority join together in an effort to prevent this act of vandalism. Otherwise, we will be breeding the "potential delinquents".
Let's keep Belle Glade the way we like it, place of peace and a place that away from the problems of the big cities, all the citizens can live with dignity, and not with the fear of a bunch of "brats" stealing the paintwork and lawns which are expensive and hard to keep up. Let's join efforts to help them to find constructive entertainments even if they have "everything at home".

THE DRUG PUSHER'S TARGET?

CRACKER CRUMBS

BY DEAN JONES

Ain't it amazing how many people find room to hoist themselves on what all of a sudden appears to be a bandwagon.
Everybody sits back, looking the situation over and when they think the time's right... and a number usually find the time is right at the same time, they jump aboard.
Look at what's been happening the past couple of days with the U.S. Senate seat currently occupied by Ed Gurney.
Politicians all over the state have been keeping a gnat eye or two peeled while the Miami Herald has been raking Gurney over the coals.
Of course Gurney hasn't helped matters much with statements that paint him either guilty as a cat with sanny breath or the dumbest thing to come down the pike since U2 pilot Francis Gary Powers told a Soviet crowd, "I didn't know what I was doing."
Anyway, what with all the howraring around, Gurney's chances for re-election were looking as thin as Twigg's used to be and it wasn't really a surprise when several opportunistic politicians around the state said they were considering the job.
It did seem to surprise a few people around Belle Glade, however, when John Grady said he was considering representing the American Party in the race.
He hasn't made a definite decision to run yet, but it'll be interesting to see how Doc does in the race should he decide to jump parties and make the race.

One of my favorite sayings for years has been that I save a lot of sweat by not having to kick with the Joneses since I am Jones.
Now I find that's true of the entire state in one area at least.
Get the first edition of the HATE Letter last week and whaddya think? Florida has earned the new nickname of Hate State, with Miami as its capital.
As a matter of fact, Budd Arthur, the founder of HATE, Inc. and author of the HATE Letter, was in Florida outnumbered all others by almost two to one.
The Head Hater said his home state of Illinois is running a weak second. Al Capone would roll over in his grave.
As a matter of fact, in the running are Wisconsin, Indiana and our good rednecks to the north in the Sovereignty-God-State-of-Georgia.
An interesting note is that New York and Texas, which Arthur said he thought would be high on the list, turned out to be mere dabblers in dislike rather than dyed-in-the-hat haters.

Arthur said HATE has gotten off to a booming start in its three-month-old existence but has, of course, run into some problems, which figures considering how hateful the whole organization is.
One of the first problems was getting HATE mail through the U.S. Post Office, which has to be high on the most hated agencies list nationally, if not throughout the world.
But just about the time everybody in the club was set to get hateful about the whole thing, Arthur and Company got the message across to the Chicago Post Office, so keep those hate letters coming, folks.
HATE Letter too. Arthur quoted me as stating the unvarnished truth that I'm the most hated man in the county but added he hadn't heard from my readers yet.
Now, come one, people. I know you're out there. We've got to take the title of Hate Capital of the Nation away from Miami. I realize there's a lot to hate in Little Havana but I have faith in Belle Glade so break out those poison pens and let's show Chicago we can hate with the best of them.

Speaking of hate, those idiots in Washington may get a few pieces of hate mail themselves now people around the country are waking up (an hour early but still too late) to realize what Daylight Savings Time on a year-round basis is doing to them.
I mentioned last week there were a few disgruntled people over at Glades Central who don't like the changes brought about because of the new time setup and there was no shortage of people at a listening post last week at Lake Shore Junior High who didn't like the idea of their children heading to school before daylight either.
Now, if you pay any attention to the news at all, you know there are a heck of a lot of other people around the county and state who don't like DST (short for Durned Stupid Time) either.
Personally, I think Joe Carroll had the right idea. It's about time we write the idea of their children heading to school before daylight either.
One news reporter quoted Sen. Lawton Chiles of Lakeland as saying Congress simply doesn't know whether Stupid Time would save fuel or not. He said the Senate and the House of Representatives don't have enough information on the energy crisis to really know what to do about it.
Of course, to anyone who pays any attention to the news, that's not surprising. Congress seldom has enough knowledge to take any action, or enough sense to take reasonable action, but that never stopped them before and it's not stopping them now.

off the record

with Glenn Laney

I'm sure very few of you know I was a budding poet. After reading my pithy offering below I'm sure you still won't know it. But that was such a great show the Dolphins put on Sunday 44 inspired the following. The world of poetry surely hopes they don't inspire me to too many more efforts!

As the Dolphin legions marched down the field
The Fans got the feeling they were not going to yield
Even a touchdown to the visiting Vikings.

First it was Cronk over tackle then Murphy around end,
And not even Eller or Marshall or Page could defend Their gold line from the onrushing Dolphins.

Cronk burst through the line for the games first score
While Grant paced the sidelines hoping for more Aggressiveness on the part of his team.

But the score kept on mounting as the half neared a finish
And the poor helpless Vikings did nothing to diminish
The glory of the Dolphins that day.

But when the Vike offense started to rumble
Gillum went deep, but alas Reed's fumble
Kept the score at seventeen-zip.

The second half, quite frankly was a bore
Through the Dolphins did allow the Vikings to score.
But only once, mind you, as they did once themselves.

At 24-7 the Vikings were trounced and bounced Right off the field and Bud did announce
"We should have stayed home."

From the Dolphin dressing room came no rah-rah cheer
Keeping their emotions shut in low gear
As they counted their cool fifteen thousand.

Cronk won the game ball and Arnsbarger too,
Larry will be back, but Bill is going to New York City to coach the poor Giants.

Super Bowl Eight proved the Dolphin had no lack Of talent and not even Lombardi's Pack
Could beat them today.

The rest of the league has one thing to fear
All the Dolphins will be back—just wait till next year—
Good God.

Since the Dolphins got me started off on football I might as well continue with a crank letter from a disgruntled
(and he has every right to be) Florida
State alumni. (Ed Note: Florida State is that school in Tallahassee that used to have a football team.)
In full the letter with appropriate comments afterward.

Dear Mr. Laney:

Title: Go to Hell, Gators!

Chorlie, chorde-guffaw, guffaw! Isn't that the way you began your December 6, 1973, "off the record" column? Well, I would have responded sooner to the article, but I just received my copy of "The Herald" on December 21. Typical University of Florida: competence in journalistic speed I suppose.

Oh well, I had a good night on Saturday, the 22nd, watching the GATORS, or GATOBS, get trounced by Miami of Iowa, or was it Ohio, or maybe Miami of Idaho? And, funny about that score, too, wasn't it? It was 16-9. That's the same score as when the lowly reptiles slithered into Tallahassee in 1965 under the direction of "ole, one-ear, Graves" and a quarterback named Steve "Spurious" Yip. It was Florida 16, the alligators 7. Funny, but old "Spurious" still hasn't made it in the NFL. Can't even beat a rookie quarterback named Joe Reed.

And, in today's "Charlotte Observer" there was more great news. Florida State beat previously unbeaten Wake Forest 66 to 48 in basketball to win the Big Sun Invitational Tournament in St. Petersburg. But, more than that, your gators—there they go again—lost to Virginia Tech by a score of 85 to 74.

So, until something else raises my ire, I will keep on reading hometown newspapers and you won't hear from me again.

Glades Girls Make Perfect Score

Two Belle Glade girls were among 657 students at the University of South Florida to earn a perfect 4.0 grade point average during the university's fall term.

Miss Jan Leslie Amerine, daughter of Mr. and Mrs.

Lonas S. Amerine of 1724 N.W. Ave. L and Miss Brenda J. Webster, daughter of Mrs. Loraine Webster of 633 S. Main St. were the two scholars.

Amerine said his daughter was graduated Dec. 14 and began teaching special education classes near Tampa the following Monday while continuing her education. She is working towards her masters degree in counseling.

The two Belle Glade girls were among a total of 2,300 students at the university to be named to the honor list during the fall term. The university has a present enrollment of 19,800.

Beta Xi Meets

After a busy holiday season, Beta Xi resumed its regular meetings at the home of Mrs. Horace Harris on Tuesday, Jan. 3.

Mrs. Harris, who also serves as Service Chairman, presented the society with a picture of Wayne White.

Wayne is an 11 year old boy whom the Chapter sponsors at the Real Life Ranch in Okeechobee.

In addition to furnishing a monthly allowance for him, the Chapter remembers him with gifts on special occasions.

Since Wayne is an avid football fan, Beta Xi presented him with a football game, football jersey, and tennis shoes for Christmas. Mrs. Lee Jarke, President, also took a turkey and an assortment of fresh vegetables to the Ranch for a holiday meal, compliments of Beta Xi.

This particular Service Project is a rewarding one for the chapter.

A program entitled "Obstacles Or Pretext" was presented by Mrs. Paul Dee. The members were each asked to choose one item from a number of objects brought by Mrs. Dee and asked to specify a future meeting.

The hostess served chocolate cake, coffee and tea to the following members: Mrs. Ken Buchanan, Mrs. Lee Burke, Mrs. Marian Chapman, Mrs. and Mr. Don Elias, Mrs. George Garner, Mrs. Edith Freedlund, Mrs. Bertha La Chater, Mrs. Ben Painter and Mrs. Bob Pease.

The Sporting Scene

The battle of the fields—softball fields that is, as every year the Men's Softball League and the Women's Softball League try to get the advantage of having a certain ball park on a certain night.

One look at the fields and one knows why there is trouble between the two leagues as to who gets the park. Out of four ball parks, one each in South Bay, Belle Glade, Pahokee and Canal Point, Pahokee is the best kept one around.

The grass is always cut at least reasonably short, there is a great amount of distance from homeplate to the outfield fences, and the clay surface is usually smooth.

The Belle Glade Little League-Jaycee Park would have a good field if the facilities were improved. The all-clay infield is rough, the grass in the outfield grows so tall the fielders have a choice—either catch the ball or lose it, and last but not least, the lighting is terrible. Some of the lights blew last season while others are placed in such a position as to blind the players in the field.

Back a few months ago when the city commission outlined the plans they had in spending their share of revenue funds, they included improvements on the ball park as well as the possibility of constructing at least one or two others, but nothing else has been decided upon.

The only information I've received as to spending the revenue, was that Ron

Karen's Korner

By Karen Hansford

Snyder, buildings and grounds superintendent, ordered some "tiny tots" equipment for Lyon's Part in the northeastern section of town.

He said they should arrive about the early part of February and they will then be put up as soon as possible.

Anyway, back to the ball parks. South Bay's field is in terrible shape. The women used it for some of their games two years ago but discarded it last year because of the poor condition it was in. Now it is used only for some of the team's practices.

Even if the field in South Bay was improved, there would be a transportation problem if the Women's League used it because some of the teams are from Pahokee and they would have to travel from Pahokee to South Bay, which isn't a wise idea with the gas shortage.

The field in Canal Point isn't too bad, but it is very small and besides, the same problem in transportation would exist with the teams in South Bay and Belle Glade having to go all the way to Canal Point.

Looks like the only thing left to do is for the Men's League and the Women's League to battle it out as they usually do for the use of the Belle Glade and Pahokee field on certain nights.

They're calling it the Dolphin Dynasty now.

The Miami Dolphins have finally proven to everyone they are not just a lucky team, rather a strong, winning team.

And they really socked it to the Minnesota Vikings this past Sunday, completely dominating the game in a lopsided 24-7 win. The Vikings were just lucky to get those points on the board.

I was amazed at the way Minnesota just destroyed itself by having penalties and fumbles on key plays. First, the fumble by Jake Scott when he was catching a punt. It went through his hands only to hit a Viking player and went right back to him.

Then the fourth and one situation by the Vikings at the Dolphins' six, when they fumbled and the dolphins recovered. And the biggest farce of all was the time they tried a successful inside kick only to have it nullified because of an offsides penalty.

As if the Dolphins weren't already killing them!

Garo Yepremian's "attempted pass" was the talk of last year's Super Bowl, but Griese's mistake will be the joke on this one. I bet many people would have liked to have seen the wild look on his face when center Jim Langer snapped the ball on the count of one and Griese thought the count was two, thinks to good ole Larry Csonka.

The Dolphins couldn't go wrong anyhow as "Zonk" scored on the play. That guy's got some nerve. To think of having a needle go in and out of his skin right near his eye without anything to numb it gives some people the goose bumps.

From what I've heard I'm not the only one who could squirm at the idea, even some of the men around here admit it.

Larry Csonka deserved the game ball because he did a fine job, but I have a sneaking suspicion if he could he would give a game ball to everyone of the offensive linemen.

Wonder what Coach Shula will do for a defensive coach next year now that is almost certain Arnsperger will become the next head coach for the New York Giants? Wouldn't be too surprised if Jim Kick tagged along right behind him.

NOTES: The Women's Softball League is meeting next Tuesday night in Pahokee and it is recommended that all softball members in South Bay and Belle Glade go. Seems there may be something very important to be discussed.

Wonder what Joe Robbie is thinking of for an encore now? Maybe a third Super Bowl championship for the Miami Dolphins? Wouldn't be too surprised...

THE CANAL POINT SOFTBALL PARK* IS WELL-KEPT BUT TOO SMALL ...and is considered too far away for teams from South Bay and Belle Glade.

TEAMS HAVEN'T USED SOUTH BAY BALL PARK IN TWO YEARS ...and needs to be fixed up. It is both rundown and too far from Pahokee teams.*

THE LIGHTS AT THE BELLE GLADE SOFTBALL DIAMOND BLIND ...the players, the grass isn't kept short and has a rough clay infield.

THE PAHOKEE SOFTBALL FIELD IS THE BEST OF FOUR GLADES' ...area fields, with smooth clay and grass forming the infield and wellkept outfield.

Recordando a Jose Marti

Por Ramon Corona

Cuando un cubano habla de Marti debe hacerlo "con el alma de rodillas". Claro es que nos referimos a los cubanos de limpio corazón, no a los que se refieren a los cubanos que quisieron los libertadores somnolientos y muchas veces, tema irreverente para sus burlas.

En la longitud de nuestras memorias de gloria, Marti es el símbolo de la cubanía del sacrificio y de la justicia.

Un hombre esencialmente bueno se vio en la impetuosa necesidad de abandonar la guerra de Independencia. Inspiro e impulsó el movimiento revolucionario del 95, pero quiso suavizarlo con gestos de advertencia. No cultivó el odio a los españoles sino a un régimen divorciado del concepto del derecho de gentes.

La base fundamental de su cultura fue la lectura apasionada de los clásicos hispanos como Cervantes, Grcia, Santa Teresa, Saavedra Fajardo, Quevedo. Sus incursiones por otras culturas fueron mas que nada un goce intelectual.

Llegó a la almeida de los mejores escritores foraneos, pero los españoles fueron su predilección. Donde quiera que planó su lira de peregrino conquistó mentes y corazones. Su bondad era inagotable. Así un buen escritor cubano lo llama el Santo de America.

Dijo Ruben Dario que el Comendante interior, des veces, aparece el Genio. Uno de los dos, fue Jose Marti, a quien el nicaraguense universal lo proclamaba Maestro. Marti fue poeta, orador, ensayista, crítico de arte y portentoso orador. Un claro caso de "teadidismo".

Todo lo sacrificó por la soberanía de Cuba. Desoyendo los consejos de los que querian

Issues Are Answered

The use of wetlands and just what a person can do with or to his property were among the discussions State Rep. Tom Lewis had with his constituents Saturday during one of his monthly visits to the Glades. Talking above with Mrs. Jessie Freeling, Lewis expounds on the rights a man has to make changes to his own property. He also discussed such wide-ranging subjects as the Glades ambulance problem, the four-laning State Road 80, police benefits and what effect raising the level of Lake Okeechobee would have during hurricanes.

Scout Organizational Meeting

An organizational meeting of the 1974 Glades District Scout Committee will be held at 7:30 p.m. tonight at the Community United Methodist Church of Belle Glade.

This will be the first Glades district meeting for 1974 and will include District Scouter Training under the new plan of organization.

Objectives for the coming year will be discussed and responsibilities for attaining the goals will be assigned.

The year's programs will be outlined and steps will be taken for those of immediate importance.

"All new members," District Secretary Earl Hartman said, "should make a special effort to attend, as should members who have served before. We have an outstanding committee and are looking for a great year of scouting in the Glades.

"Institutional Representatives should attend," Hartman said, "to find out who they can look to for assistance with their units and participate on the Relationships Committee, to which all IR's will belong."

Trailer Parks Bring Heated Row

waiting on sewer service to move in to homes they've just bought," he said. "A trailer could be moved in next door and their home values would go way down before they even have a chance to move in." Mayor Aubrey Farmer said he disagreed with Grear if Grear was trying to say it is up to the city to provide a trailer park. He said he didn't think that is the city's responsibility. During the same discussion, the commission learned the Palm Beach County Health Department had told Building Inspector Garth Lewis the city couldn't hook up any more homes to the city's sewage system.

City Manager William Malley said Lewis was told, "and I understand they used some strong language," the city is under a full moratorium.

"That's ridiculous," Grady said. "People in town are going to go to the bathroom whether they go in their own home or go across the street."

"So far as I'm concerned, let them go ahead and hook up and if they (the health department) wants to stop them (the people) let 'em get an injunction."

The moratorium was imposed by the health department because the city treatment plant was found last year to be inadequately handling the amount of sewage going through it every day.

Since that time, the city has started, and completed, a program to rehabilitate the city's sewage lines to eliminate the infiltration of ground water which was overworking the treatment plant.

It has also begun a modification and rehabilitation project to make the plant more efficient but that project has been delayed because the contractor can't get the materials to complete the job.

The city also decided to meet with officials of Gold Coast Paving to see if some solution could be worked out so increased asphalt prices and truck rental rates won't stop the city's street paving program.

Homer Carr of Gold Coast said the price of asphalt has soared from $9.50 a ton to $14.50 a ton and he can't afford to live up to the contract he signed with the city.

Ironically, Carr reported that while the asphalt cost $9.50 a ton, the amount he could purchase was controlled but now he can buy all he can afford. The city commissioners were to have met with him this morning in an attempt to solve the problem.

In other areas, the city agreed to allow Jack Tatum to use the civic center on a regular weekly basis to provide entertainment to Spanish speaking residents.

"Decided to find whether present members of the Citizens Advisory Council and Community Improvement wish to continue to serve in their capacity. The CAIC, last met in approximately three months and there aren't enough current members to have a quorum."

Decided to ask the state Department of Transportation to install a full traffic signal at the intersection of Southwest Avenue G and Main Street and a flashing beacon at Northwest Avenue C and Main.

Decided to meet Feb. 7 with the City Planning and Zoning Board and representatives of Adley and Associates to discuss a comprehensive plan for the city.

Purchases Store

Mr. and Mrs. Ron Cameron found flowers waiting for them when they opened January Grocery Jan. 7 when they opened the Belle Glade landmark under their ownership. Cameron bought the store following the death last year of Palmer January, who founded the grocery. "We still intend to emphasize the fine meats traditionally sold here," Cameron said, "and Milton Geise is still in charge of the meat department."

Grady Offered American Party's Senate Candidacy

Wings Of Woman

Janet Sears daughter of Mrs. Eva Mae Sears of South Bay, has "won her wings" and is now a stewardess with Delta Air Lines. She completed the four-week training course at Delta's Stewardess School at the Atlanta Airport and is now wearing the uniform of the nation's fifth largest airline. She is based in Dallas. Miss Sears is a graduate of Lake Shore High School and attended Wayne State University.

Slide Presentation Set

The next meeting of Lake Okechobee Audubon Society will be Thursday, Jan. 24, at 8 p.m. at the Everglades Experiment Station, Biscayne. Dr. L. M. Westmore will present a program of slides entitled "Wild Flowers and Birds from the Great Smokies to Newfoundland." At this meeting plans will be completed for a field trip to the Barley Barber Swamp on February 9th. This swamp is an "old-growth" forest and "light" oak property near Indiantown. FPL has designed its water cooling reservoir in such a way as to preserve the swamp.

JOHN GRADY IS "STRONGLY CONSIDERING" American Party offer for Senate Race next year

Belle Glade City Commissioner John Grady said this week he is "strongly considering" thinking about the offer made by the Florida American Party to run for the U.S. Senate.

State American Party Chairman Ben Robinson told a crowd of more than 400 people at the party's convention Saturday in St. Augustine.

Grady is the man party staff directors and committeemen had unanimously chosen.

"I hope the doctor says, 'Let's go,'" State Executive Director Don Mathers said Monday, because I believe the people are ready."

Mathers announced in a news release last week the American Party in the state had "approached a potential candidate for the race for the U.S. Senate seat now occupied by Sen. Ed Gurney but Grady's name wasn't officially released until Sunday night."

"I told them I'd have to make serious consideration," Grady said, "because it makes a considerable sacrifice to begin campaigning again."

Grady said he would have to talk the idea over with his wife and family before he could come to a firm decision but he indicated he is favorably inclined towards accepting the candidacy.

"I don't think we have more than three years left," Grady said. "I wouldn't be surprised if we don't have elections in 1976 if something isn't done in 1974."

Grady said he has been promised all-out support by the party, founded originally as a national party to back the 1968 candidacy for President by Gov. George Wallace of Alabama.

"They've decided to go for the big one," Grady said and added he could expect, if he accepts the nomination, full support from the party throughout the state.

He said the planks of his platform will be an appeal to the public to rid the country of over-taxation and big government interference in local affairs.

Grady was the main speaker at the St. Augustine convention and Mathers said he had never heard the Belle Glade physician speak better, "and I've heard him speak a number of times."

Mathers said Grady received a standing ovation following his talk, in which he reminded the crowd they were in the nation's oldest city and the American Party is pledged to honor the ideals of the Founding Fathers.

"Then the state chairman jumped up," Mathers said, "and announced all the state directors and committeemen were unanimous that Dr. Grady is our man."

Mathers said the party is setting up its state headquarters at 1100 Southern Blvd. in West Palm Beach and the headquarters will be used as a center for Grady's campaign.

"We're having some problems over here," he said. "We're having a statewide WATS line and we haven't been able to get it installed yet."

"It's hard to keep everything going smoothly when you don't have good communications," he said.

Mathers said a good portion of the work is renovating the party's office building was done Saturday by a group of volunteers "Patriots."

He said he wasn't sure how many American Party members there are in the county or in the state but said he didn't think numbers alone are all-important anyhow.

"I think if we have the active strength of people who will work, we can win," he said. "In a general election, it doesn't matter what party a voter belongs to."

"If both the Democrats and Republicans have candidates the people can't believe in, they might go for a knight in shining armor who doesn't yet have a political stigma."

Should Grady switch political parties and enter the campaign for Gurney's seat, it would be his second party switch in two years and his fifth political campaign in four years.

Grady switched from the Democrats to the Republican Party in the summer of 1972 to run for the state senate seat left open when former State Senator President Jerry Thorne was said he would not run for re-election.

He initially gained the office of city commissioner in 1968 and he and Commissioner Ralph Kirk were Belle Glade's since he agrees with the ideals of the American Party.

ers following a special election in March 1972.

The special election was brought about by the amended city charter which allows one commissioner to represent each of the city's three boroughs and two at-large commissioners.

Circuit Judge W. May Walker of Tallahassee declared Grady's seat vacant in a decision on July 21, 1973. The decision sprang from the city's challenge of the state's right to run law.

Grady, when he decided to run the state senate, resigned from his seat on the commission with the stipulation the resignation would become effective Sept. 30, 1974 if he lost.

Judge Walker decreed the resign to run law was legal and binding and ordered a special election to fill Grady's seat, which Grady won last fall.

Grady said this week he didn't think he would be effected by the resign-to-run law should he decide to seek Gurney's seat because his seat would become vacant at any rate by this September while the general election doesn't take place until November.

Grady said he foresees no trouble in switching parties and he agrees with the ideals of the American Party.

Annual Christian Leadership Prayer Breakfast Planned

Arthur Crawford of Columbus, O., nationally known nuclear physicist, will be the principal speaker at the 6th Annual Christian Leadership Prayer Breakfast, Saturday morning, Feb. 9, at West Palm Beach auditorium.

Scheduled for 8:07 a.m., tickets for the $2 catered breakfast are available at the office of the Christian Business Men's Committee (CBMC) of the Palm Beaches, at 711 N. Dixie Highway, Room 10, West Palm Beach.

Edwin M. Brown, M.D., Chairman of CBMC, and presiding at the breakfast, makes an appeal for all men throughout the county to attend.

"The CBMC annual breakfast has grown progressively from 150, 250, 500, 1000, 1500, to 2000 last year, and who knows what it will be this Feb. 9," said Dr. Brown. "We want every man, Christian or non-Christian, young, middle aged, or senior citizen, to underline Feb. 9, purchase tickets, and tell friends about the event". Christian Business Men's Committee, an organization of committed, born-again Christian working men, business and professional people of the Greater Palm Beaches, which for years has met each Tuesday at 6:45 a.m., reached a high point during the recent two-year administration of Joe N. Rinker, prominent Christian business leader.

Dr. Brown sustained the momentum and has just consented to serve a second term, and in addition, will act as Chairman of the upcoming special breakfast event Feb. 9.

An adding machine performs accurately for anyone who uses it correctly. Each person may record a different column of figures. Answers will vary accordingly but each will be correct.

Life also registers what we give it... produces results correspondingly. Sometimes we are so hurried and hurried with whirling activities we forget to include worship.

When we do clear our minds for understanding and prayers with God, good results follow.

The Church has accurate answers for modern problems. Let it help you find correct solutions.

Mrs. Wallis won first place in originally designed needlework and ceramics while Mrs. Beaton earned her blue ribbon in Holiday Decorations and in the Rias and Designs category of Needlework.

Other winners were Mrs. Judy Schiele in the Florida Materials category, Mrs. Judy Mullis in Decoupage, Mrs. Joyce Chambliss in Photo graphy, Mrs. Sandra Chambliss in Bouquet and Mrs. Colette Romfeli in Painting.

Mrs. Murray Weeks and Mrs. H.B. McCall were given the task of choosing the winner in the nine categories of art work on exhibit at the Belle Glade Civic Center Jan. 6.

Eligible exhibits included anything the club members made during the calendar year of 1973 and they were shown until the club held its regular meeting that evening.

The Juniors chose the Joe Guerry Jr. family as Family of the Year for 1973. The honored family lives at 1717 S.E. Ave. H. Place and he is a plaster contractor.

The Guerrys have three children, Melvin, 14, Donna, 12 and Billy, 9. They are all students at Christian Day School.

POTENTIAL

"The United States of America - the greatest potential force, material, moral, and spiritual, in the world." - G. Loewes Di-Vinson, 1917.

The key word - potential. What are we doing to live up to ours?

We can indeed be the greatest force in the world, a living example of what other nations can achieve. We can be a people of great material wealth, if we exercise the self-control to keep the balance of economy. With our abundance of food and our excellent medical facilities, we can be the healthiest people in the world. Morally and spiritually, we have a very encouraging prospect to a strong character, and none of the extreme deprivation brings to a morally weak country. We can be all these things and more if we maintain our self-discipline and do not let ourselves become lax.

America - the greatest potential force in the world. Let's live up to that potential and make it the greatest force for GOOD in the world. SUPPORT AMERICA!

The Farm Front

Fruit and vegetables which cannot pass our road guard inspection stations for one reason or another usually find a worthwhile home these days.

Cans Bring Less Litter More Money

Last month, 14,572 lbs. of aluminum, or 335,156 cans were recycled by Belle Glade area citizens. Reynolds cash-for-cans mobile unit paid out $1,457.20 for the all-aluminum cans.

During January, the public will continue to receive 10 cents a pound for the cans, when the mobile unit makes three stops in Belle Glade.

"Cash-in" aluminum cans at 500 W. Canal St., on Thursday, January 17 and 18, from 11 a.m. to 12:30 p.m.

"Public participation in aluminum recycling is steadily increasing," according to Paul Hayden, Reynolds Regional Recycling Manager. "Because of this, Reynolds 1974 Cash-For-Cans program should produce even greater volumes of recycled aluminum."

Aluminum has a higher scrap value than other recyclable materials. Aluminum's worth is $200 a ton compared to steel, paper and glass being worth somewhere between $5 to $20 a ton.

If the driver has forgotten his inspection slip from the packing house or wherever he picked up his load, or if the information on his slip is in error, he must fill out a form which is cleared with the agency handling the load.

For example, a driver might forget his inspection slip when he leaves a citrus packing house in Polk County. He must provide information to the inspection station and this is cleared through our Division of Fruit and Vegetable Inspection office in Winter Haven to make certain the driver is not hauling stolen fruit.

On the other hand, if there is some other violation and the load cannot be cleared through the inspection station, the driver has the option of taking it to the point of origin or taking it off his truck. Because of the cost he generally just takes it off the truck.

If the fruit is fit for human consumption, it is given to some state institution or some charitable organization such as a boy's school or an old folk's home.

In these cases, the school or the home usually comes and picks up the load. And believe it or not, the truck driver generally helps in loading up the fruit he has lost in another truck.

If, however, the fruit is not fit for human consumption, it has to be dumped in a suitable place authorized by the city or the county. Naturally, an inspector goes with the driver to make sure he dumps in accordance with pollution control regulations and doesn't simply go on his way.

The Victorians believed that a heavy cough could be cured by eating a bowl of raw onions. The next cough must have been breathtaking.

Unfit citrus discovered at packing houses is often taken to citrus pulp processing plants and converted into animal feeds.

In years past packing houses and other citrus processors used to pay people to haul off and destroy the questionable citrus. Today it is utilized for limited feeding purposes.

Thus, fruit generally benefits someone along the line, even if it does not pass inspection.

AEROSOL BOMBS

Aerosol cans are a great convenience, but also a potential hazard. When you read the warning about keeping it away from heat, take it seriously, or you're liable to have an uncontrollable missile on your hands.

Empty cans still contain some gas that expands when heated and can rip the container apart. One woman who threw an empty aerosol can on a trash fire was killed when the resulting explosion hurled a sharp piece of metal, cutting her jugular vein.

To dispose of aerosol cans, give the valve one last squeeze to be sure that all the pressure is relieved, then put the can in the trash. Aerosol cans still being used should never be set on stoves or near other hot places. This includes the trunk or back seat of a car. They have been known to explode from the sun's heat and shoot right through the window or shell of the car.

Girls Sought For State Pageants

Young ladies between the ages of 5 and 17 and residing in Palm Beach County will be interviewed and auditioned for the 1974 State Pageant on January 20 at 2 p.m. Auditions will be conducted at the Y. M. C. A. at 100 University Park Blvd. in Boca Raton.

The field director from the parent headquarters will select six girls to represent their community in the state finals.

Girls will be required to perform a talent display of approximately one to three minutes and will be instructed how to model on the runway.

It was once thought proper to feed a baby a daily ration of rum or wine.

The competition is divided into three age groups: Girls 5 to 8 years of age will compete for the titles of "Miss Petite" and "Miss Petite Talent," Girls 9 to 12 for the titles of "Little Miss" and "Little Miss Talent," and 13 to 17 year olds for the titles of "Miss Teen and Miss Teen Talent." At the state level six girls will be selected to represent the state at the International Pageant and will receive all expenses for the contestant and chaperone while attending the international finals. $5,000 in cash scholarships will be awarded to the winners to be used for furthering their artistic development.

Win An Original Oil Painting

No Kappa Sorority Ways and Means Chairman Brenda Prescott said this week ticket sales are underway for the raffish of an oil painting by Belle Glade artist Ann Tyler. The sales will continue through the month of January and the drawing for the painting will be held Feb. 4 with city Mayor Aubrey Farmer making the drawing. All profits from the raffish will go toward the Belle Glade Residence for Girls, Inc. according to Mrs. Prescott. Mrs. Prescott said the raffish would like to see a similar home set up in the Glades. The painting will be displayed in the window of Golden Charm Jewelers from Jan. 14 through Jan. 20. The raffish winner will be notified the night of the drawing.

GCHS Seniors Honored

Seniors at Glades Central High School, were honored on seven local radio stations recently in milk commercials produced for the South Florida Dairy Farmers.

Carolyn is the daughter of M. Ford of Raderville. She is president of the senior class at GCHS and is a member of the National Honor Society. In addition, she was recently elected "Miss Glades Central" for the year by the entire student body.

Ibrahim is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ibrahim Alava of Belle Glade. He is student council president and a member of the National Honor Society at GCHS. He is the football team photographer, is a member of the US Karate Association, and works on instructional television production.

Students from 70 South Florida high schools and colleges were alerted this Fall on radio by the South Florida Dairy Farmers in their fifth annual "Salute To Outstanding Youth".

The students were selected by their respective schools for the recognition on the basis of overall outstanding achievement and contributions to their schools and communities.

Dairymen Robert W. Hall of Lake Placid, president of the South Florida Dairy Farmers, who produce most of the fresh milk consumed locally, said the "SFWF Salute" is designed to recognize the many fine young people in South Florida who might otherwise not receive the publicity they truly deserve. "They are the silent majority," said Hall, "and they should not go unnoticed."

Two seniors at Glades Central High School were chosen last week by the Florida Dairy Association as the Teenager of the Month for December in Palm Beach County. Claiming the honors for the month were Carolyn Ford, who was also recently chosen Miss Glades Central High School at the school's homecoming, and Ibrahim Alava. Miss Ford was also recently named Teenager of the Month by the Belle Glade Elks Club. The story of that honor was run last week by the Herald, when we mistakenly ran Alava's picture over Miss Ford's story.
